Volunteer Agreement/Contract 2011-2012

Volunteers are a vital part of the Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. In fact, volunteers make up the entire organization. The following policies and procedures will ensure an enjoyable experience and productive working environment for all volunteers.

Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. volunteers must maintain current files, so each year a new waiver must be signed and emergency phone numbers updated. Volunteers for Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. are not covered under worker's compensation insurance for accidents. Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. will not accept any responsibility or accrue any cost for injuries or medical conditions that arise while volunteering for Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. strongly encourages all volunteers to carry their own health insurance.

Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. strictly prohibits the use of any alcoholic beverages and/or illegal drugs of any kind while working at events organized by and/or representing Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. Any volunteer who reports to an event while "impaired", meaning unable to perform work in a safe and productive manner, being in a physical or mental condition which creates a risk to the participant or other volunteers or the public or physical property, will be dismissed. Also, any behavior or conduct deemed inappropriate by a Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. Board Member shall be grounds for dismissal. If, as a volunteer, you witness any inappropriate behavior, please inform the Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. CEO or another Board Member.

Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. maintains the right to do a background check on any active volunteers.

Scheduling days and times to volunteer should be done in advance. Volunteers shall contact Tom Buckwalter, Recruiter, at tebski@aol.com or call 717-938-3112 717-303-8883 or to schedule days. If you are unable to volunteer on the day you have scheduled, you must contact Tom at least 48 hours in advance or earlier if possible.

Volunteers must provide their own skis, boots, poles, and winter outdoor gear, because these items will not be provided by Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc. is not responsible for lost or damaged equipment while volunteering for Wounded Warrior Patrol, Inc.
